Choral.

(Maestoso $\text{♩} = 56.$)

The musical score consists of six staves of music for two voices (Soprano and Alto) and basso continuo. The vocal parts are in unison, indicated by the text "Unisono: Soprano ed Alto in 8va, Tenore col Basso.". The basso continuo part includes a cello line and a harpsichord/bassoon line. The vocal parts enter at measure 56, marked "f". The lyrics begin with "Und wenn die ap ..." followed by "Welt voll pear on Teu ev fel ry wär hand". The music features complex harmonic structures with frequent changes in key and mode, including a section in G major with a melodic line starting with "Mel.: „Ein' feste Burg“". The score is written in common time, with various dynamics and performance instructions like "dim.", "mf", and "f".

The musical score consists of four staves of music in G major (indicated by a sharp symbol) and common time. The vocal parts are in soprano and basso continuo (bassoon and harpsichord). The piano part is in the basso continuo staff.

Annotations in the vocal parts include:

- First staff: "tra" above the vocal line, dynamic f.
- Second staff: "gen;" and "him;" repeated below the vocal line.
- Third staff: "cresc."

Dynamics and performance instructions include:

- First staff: Measures 1-2 show eighth-note patterns; measure 3 has a sustained note followed by eighth-note pairs; measure 4 has eighth-note pairs.
- Second staff: Measures 1-2 show sixteenth-note patterns; measure 3 has eighth-note pairs; measure 4 has eighth-note pairs.
- Third staff: Measures 1-2 show eighth-note patterns; measure 3 has sixteenth-note patterns; measure 4 has eighth-note pairs.
- Fourth staff: Measures 1-2 show eighth-note patterns; measure 3 has sixteenth-note patterns; measure 4 has eighth-note pairs.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff features soprano and basso continuo parts. The middle staff features alto and basso continuo parts. The bottom staff features tenor and basso continuo parts. The lyrics are written below the notes, with English translations provided for some lines. The music is in common time, with various dynamics and articulations indicated by slurs, dots, and dashes.
